

INFUSING BIRTH – 3RD GRADE
LEADERSHIP THROUGHOUT SEAS:
A FOCUSED CONVERSATION WITH REGIONAL COMPREHENSIVE CENTER LEADERS

FEBRUARY 25, 2014

Agenda

- Introduction
- B-3 in Context as a National Issue for SEAs
- Experiences, Reflections and Responses
- Open Discussion & Strategizing
- Looking Ahead

CEELO Participants

- Lori Connors-Tadros, NIEER, Project Director

- Jana Martella, EDC, Project Co-Director

- Diane Schilder, EDC

- Tom Schultz, CCSSO

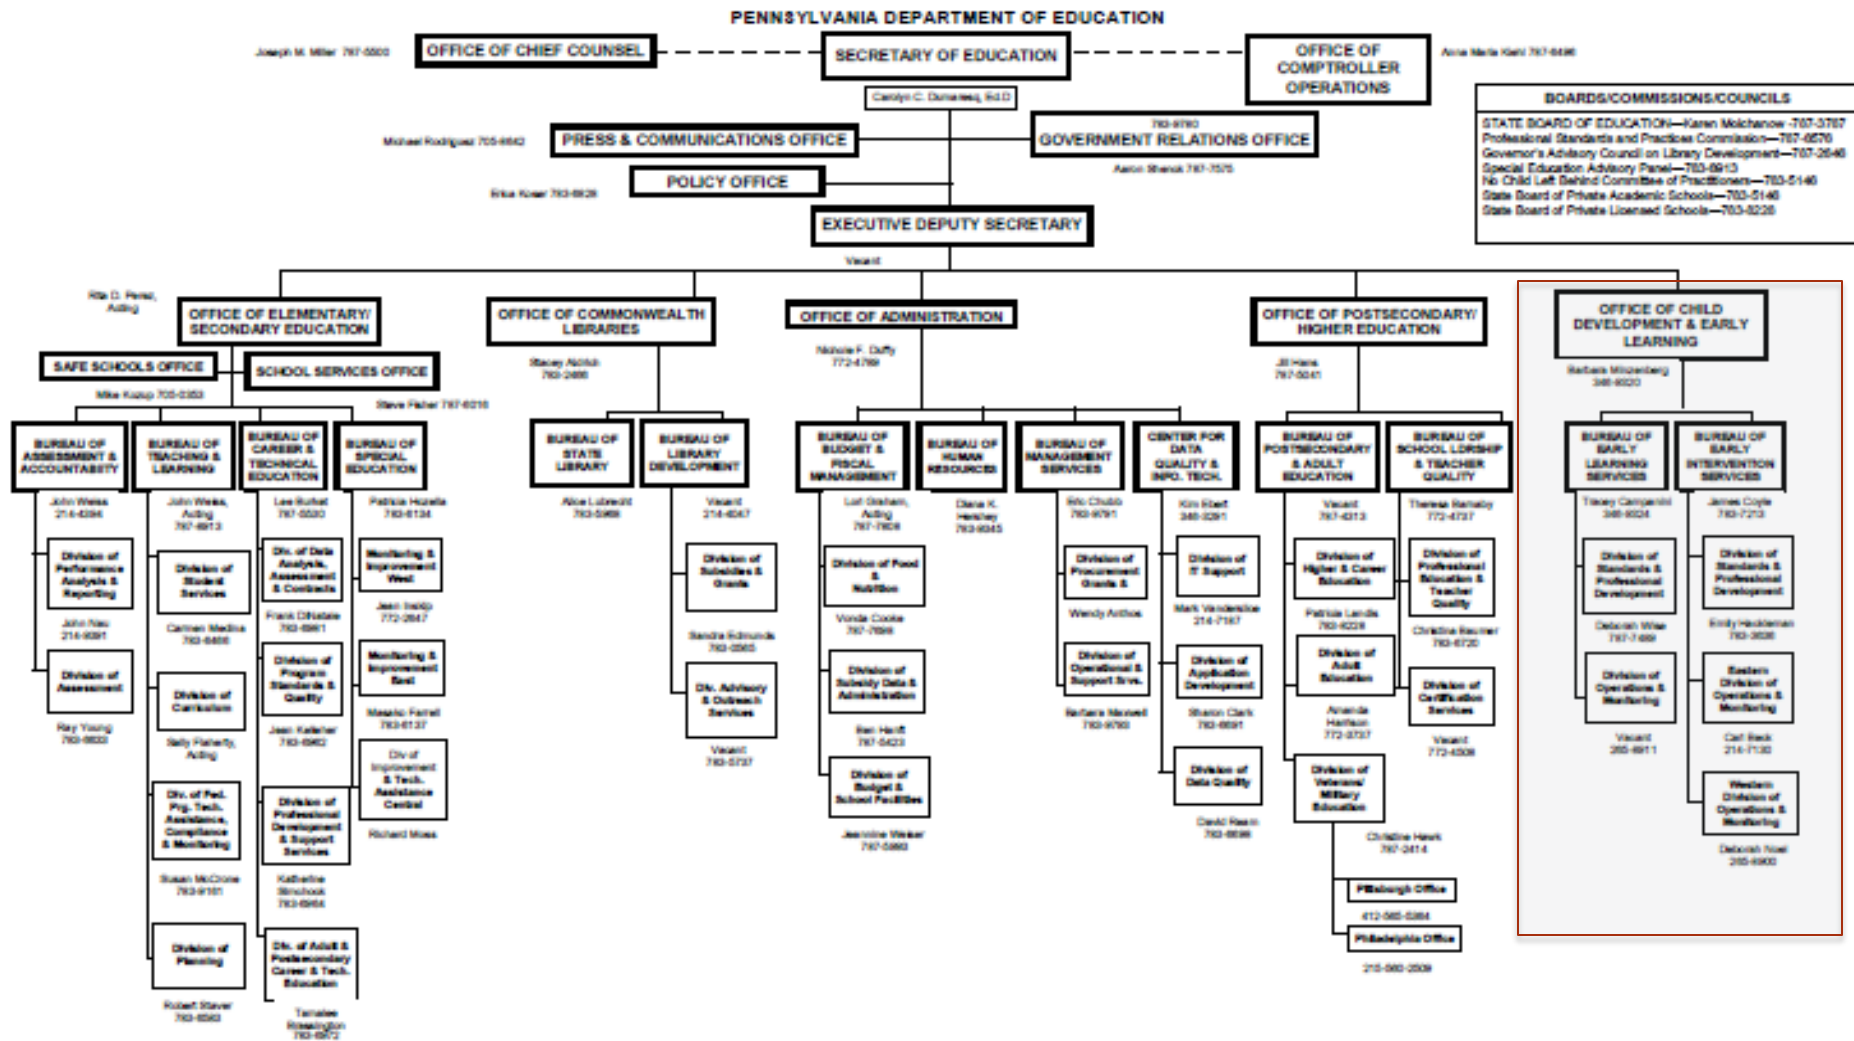

- Jim Squires, NIEER

Regional Center Connections

SEAs as Complex Organizations

Activities and Reflections

- Tom Schultz, Ph.D., ECE Project Director, CCSSO
- Corinne Eisenhart, Ph.D., EC Lead, Mid-Atlantic Regional Comp Center
- Sue Mutchler, Ph.D., EC Lead, North Central Regional Comp Center

Observations and Efforts

Dr. Tom Schultz, ECE Projects Director,
CCSSO

Experiences and Reflections in the Field

Dr. Corinne Eisenhart, MACC

Dr. Sue Mutchler, NCCC

Facilitated Discussion: Infusing B-3 Leadership Throughout SEAs

- Drivers
- Challenges/
Barriers
- Strategies/
Role of RCC

Connections & Noteworthy Developments

- Major RCC Efforts to Share
- Desire for Information
- Seeking Others for Partnerships

Looking Ahead

- Infusion of leadership is a systems issue, not necessarily a single strategy “fix;” each region and state is unique.
- Continue this discussion and involve others
 - Spring B-3rd “201” webinar
- RCC Connections
 - National RoundTable Conference (June 5-6)
 - On-going 2-way/3-way communication

CEELO

Center on Enhancing
Early Learning Outcomes

A large, dark green, stylized graphic element that resembles a hand or a leaf, positioned to the right of the text "CEELO".

THANK YOU FOR YOUR ENGAGEMENT!

